The schedule is rigorous, intense and not intended for the beginning dancer. All students are expected to be proficient in dance and experienced with at least five years of ballet training.

Students in the Dance program take a full day of classes, workshops and rehearsals within the University's nine spacious, full-equipped and well-lit dance studios. Courses include accompaniment by professional musicians. Adjacent to the studios are lockers, dressing rooms and lounges.

Performance ensembles offer students the opportunity to work with faculty on choreography. Ensemble selections determine the student's participation in the final performance on the last day of the program. Ensemble choices include: Ballet, Modern, Jazz and Hip Hop
